MCO CALLS

Medicaid Managed Care Organization (MCO)

WHAT IS THE MCO CALL?

- A forum where parents/caregivers have the opportunity to ask questions and/or discuss issues they are having with their Medicaid MCO (Highmark Health Options or AmeriHealth Caritas).
- Common issues discussed have included: care coordination requests, in home care hours, denials, therapies, private duty nursing, supplies, equipment and medication.
- During the call MCO's and Medicaid representatives, along with other partner organizations can help problem solve with you.

WHO SHOULD CALL?

- Parents or caregivers of children with any special health care needs, mental health/behavioral or emotional needs, who have questions and concerns regarding the Medicaid Insurance they have for their children.
- Any organization, provider or state agency with questions or calling to listen and learn.
- Adults who have AmeriHealth Caritas or Highmark Health Options as their Medicaid MCO through the Diamond State Health Plan Plus Program.
